CIRCLE of LIGHT

There is no beginning, there is no end, there is only the Circle of Light

Creating Your Sacred Space

Creating a Sacred Space can be anywhere you choose, but just make it somewhere that is special to you.

For example:

Create a little altar with things that you love, like a crystal, feather, special stones, a photograph of somewhere special, a flower perhaps? Anything at all that has special meaning to you.

Here are some photos of spaces that I created to show you.

Emerald Heart Image

Emerald Heart Cards such as those in the photos are Transmitters of Light. You can obtain some of these from myself. See Teaching number 7 - Emerald Heart Cards.

Your Sacred Space can be inside or outside, a sunny windowsill or under the moon, by a tree, in a tree or wherever you like. Using things from nature is always helpful as the natural vibration brings you into alignment with nature spirit consciousness.

Sometimes I might use an outside space, but more often I use an indoor space as it is more convenient, especially if it is raining and I don't wish to get my essence bottle label wet.

Have fun making your Sacred Space. Take it seriously, but not too seriously. Nature can be playful, so be soft and open in your heart. Remember that it is Your Intent to create this Sacred Space that is important.

With Love and Blessings,

David.
